

SALVATION ARMY CELEBRITY BELL RINGING DAY SET FOR THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6

WHO: The Salvation Army MS Gulf Coast is hosting a "Celebrity Bell Ringing Day" Thursday, December 6, 2012 at Edgewater Mall to raise much needed donations to meet the 2012 Red Kettle Christmas Campaign goal of $325,000. To date Red Kettle donations are down compared to this time last year. Donations support the life changing Salvation Army programs and services including emergency shelter and food for families.

WHAT: Local media personalities and community leaders will ring bells at the food court entrance at Edgewater Mall

WHEN: Thursday, December 6, 2012
10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

WHERE: Edgewater Mall
Food Court entrance
2600 Beach Blvd, Biloxi, MS

CELEBRITY BELL RINGERS:

Connie Rockco - Harrison County Board of Supervisors District Five 10:00am-10:30am

Christina Carter & Mark Mavar - Reigning Queen and King of Gulf Coast Carnival Association
10:30am-11:00am

Walter Brown & Kelly Bennett - Magic 93.7 DJs and Salvation Army Angel Tree Co-Chairs
11:00am-11:30am

Windy Swetman - Harrison County Supervisor District One
11:30am-12:00pm

Noon Rhonda Weidner - WLOX News

12:00pm-12:30pm

Kipp Gregory with NewsRadio 104.9, Major Terry Ray and R.J. Kroc the Salvation Army Kroc

Center mascot

12:30pm-1:00pm

Mayor A.J. Holloway-City of Biloxi

1:00pm-1:30pm