FREE FALL FESTIVAL AT THE SALVATION ARMY IN JACKSON COUNTY

Saturday, October 27, 10:00am-4:00pm

Pascagoula, Miss. (October 25, 2012) – No tricks. No scary costumes. Just some old-fashioned fun! The Salvation Army of Jackson County is celebrating the fall season with a FREE family-fun Fall Festival, scheduled for Saturday, October 27, from 10:00am-4:00pm. at The Salvation Army, 3217 Nathan Hale Ave in Pascagoula.

Captains Andy and Jenny Bailey invite the entire MS Gulf Coast to participate in the festivities. The day will be filled with fun games, pony rides, a bounce house, face-painting and a cake-walk (which awards yummy cakes to the winners) and food, all of which is FREE.

There will also be plenty of hot dogs, popcorn, beverages and candy for the young and young at heart on Saturday. The Salvation Army of Jackson County encourages everyone to come early to sign up for the many prizes and drawings that will be held throughout the day. For more information, call 228-762-7222.

About The Salvation Army:

The Salvation Army, an evangelical part of the universal Christian church, has been supporting those in need in His name without discrimination since 1865. Nearly 33 million Americans receive assistance from The Salvation Army each year through providing food for the hungry, relief for disaster victims, assistance for the disabled, outreach to the elderly and ill, clothing, shelter and opportunities for underprivileged children. About 83 cents of every dollar raised is used to support those services in nearly 9,000 communities nationwide. For more information go to <http://www.salvationarmyusa.org>, call 1-800-SAL-ARMY, or send a check to your local Salvation Army.
